ADVERTISEMENT.

THIS Volume contains an Abstract of the Regulations enacted for the Administration of Civil Justice in the Provinces of Bengal, Behar, and Orissa, from the year 1793 to the end of 1824, inclusive—corrected to the latter period in the manner noticed in the Volume of Police and Criminal Regulations.

For the reasons therein stated, the Regulations enacted for the guidance of the Courts of Civil Justice in the Western Provinces are not included in this volume.

Regulations which are rescinded, or superseded, are omitted, and any modifications or extended application of the Rules in force, are noted as in the Fouzdary Volume. The words in Italics indicate the matter to which the marginal notes have reference; otherwise, where no words are printed in Italics, the Note applies to the whole Clause or Section.

Provincial Court of Appeal.

EXECUTION OF PROCESS OF P. C. AND RETURNS BY ZILLAH AND CITY JUDGES.

16th.

All process or orders for execution of decrees which may be directed by the Provincial Court, to Judges of Zillah and City Courts, to be executed by such Judge, and returned within the limited time, or sufficient reason assigned why it has not been executed. All such returns to be made by an endorsement on the process or order, or on a paper firmly affixed to it, and if in the last-mentioned manner, an endorsement to be made on the process referring the Court to the return made on such paper annexed—copies of the order and return to be deposited with the records of the Zillah or City Court. If the party, against whom such process may issue, shall abscond, so that it cannot be served upon him, Judge to cause a writing to be affixed up in the Court-room, containing a copy of the order or process, and a notice, that if the party shall not obey the exigence within the time limited, the Provincial Court will proceed to try and determine the case exparte. A copy of such notice to be affixed at the door of the house of the party concerned, or village of his residence, and return to the Provincial Court to be made, certifying the manner in which process has been executed.

If any dependant, or native servant of any Judge of a Civil or Criminal Court, not being a public officer attached to such Court, shall extort or receive any money or other valuable consideration from any party on account of any suit to be instituted, depending or decided, to be committed as for a contempt of Court, and punished, by fine, equal to three times the amount received, or by imprisonment, or corporal punishment,* at the discretion of the Court, and the Judge required to discharge such dependant. Copy of the final decision, whether appealed or not, to be transmitted to the Governor General in Council, who, in addition to the above penalties, may declare the offender incapable of serving Government in any public capacity.

REGULATION XV.

* As such offenders are, by this Regulation, expressly exempted from Criminal Prosecution, (C. 7, S. 9,) the infliction of corporal punishment, at the discretion of the Judge, in an Action for Damages, appears repugnant to the principles of justice.

C. 3. No suits whatever to be held cognizable in any Court of Justice, if the cause of action shall have arisen sixty years before the institution of such suit. Preceding clauses further declared inapplicable to any private claims to property, by whatever title acquired, if held without molestation during twelve years antecedent to the institution of the suit, and the title believed valid.

C. 4. No length of time to bar the cognizance of suits for the recovery of property in cases of mortgage and deposit, nor in any cases wherein the possession shall not have been under a title, believed to convey a right of property to the possessor.

4th. C. 1. Provisions contained in Section 15, Regulation VII. 1799, (Revenue,) for arrest of defaulting tenants and their sureties, and for summary enquiry into demands for arrears of rent, applicable only to recent
